The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors Annual General Meeting 2017 General Council 2017-2018 Elected

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors (HKIS) was held on 8 December 2017. Sr Dick KWOK was elected as President of the HKIS for 2017 - 2018, taking over from Sr Thomas HO, who retires as Immediate Past President.

At the AGM it was also announced that Sr Dr Tony LEUNG was elected Senior Vice-President, and Sr Winnie SHIU and Sr Billy WONG were elected Vice-Presidents respectively, while Sr Paul WONG and Sr Alexander LAM were elected Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer, respectively.

Sr Dick KWOK is a Fellow of the HKIS. He served as Chairman (2011-13) of HKIS's Property and Facility Management Division, and is currently the Deputy Managing Director at Savills Property Management Limited. He has been involved in building and property and facility management works over the years. In addition to his service with the HKIS, Sr KWOK holds a number of roles at various organisations in the surveying industry including the Property Management Services Authority, Hong Kong Housing Society and Chinese Temples Committee. He also strives to promote the surveying industry to the younger generation and facilitate the development of the industry.

The incoming President Sr KWOK said, "In the coming year, the Institute will focus on "Engage, Mentor, Growth and Connect". We will motivate the future generation of surveyors; enhance the sense of belonging and engagement of members, youngsters; build up surveyors' public image among the community; and establish a one - of - a kind mentorship programme to promote the profession. Growth within and outside the Institute is something to look forward to in the coming year. The new General Council will continue to review its code of practices and maintain the standard of the industry from time to time. We will execute sustainable development for Hong Kong with professional expertise, while strengthening the connection with overseas counterparts and associations to keep upholding our professional standards, the influence, and success internationally. "

About the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors

Established in 1984, The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors is the only surveying professional body incorporated by ordinance in Hong Kong. As of 8 December 2017, the number of members reached 9,937, of which 6,404 were corporate members. The Institute's work includes setting standards for professional services and performance, establishing codes of ethics, determining requirements for admission as professional surveyors, access and award the professional qualification, and advance members' professional knowledge, technical and services standards through continuing professional development.

The Institute has an important consultative role in government policy making and on issues affecting the profession. We have advised the Government on issues such as unauthorized building works, building safety campaign, problems of property management, town planning and development strategies, construction quality and housing problems. We are working on amendments to standard forms of building contract and have issued guidance notes on floor area measurement methods.
